49 Stat. 2710; Treaty Series 873

The United States of America and Austria, desiring to enlarge the list of crimes on account of which extradition may be granted under the Convention concluded between the United States and Austria on January 31, 1930,<sup>1</sup> with a view to the better administration of justice and prevention of crime within their respective territories and jurisdictions, have resolved to conclude a Supplementary Convention for this purpose and have appointed the following Plenipotentiaries:

The President of the United States of America:

Mr. Alfred W. Kliefoth, his Chargé d'Affaires ad interim to Austria, and

The Federal President of Austria:

Dr. Engelbert Dollfuss, Federal Chancellor.

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found to be in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following articles:

ARTICLE I. The following crimes are added to the list of crimes numbered 1 to 22 in Article II of the said Convention of January 31, 1930, on account of which extradition may be granted, that is to say:

23. Crimes against the bankruptcy laws.

ARTICLE II. The Present Convention shall be considered as an integral part of the said extradition Convention of January 31, 1930, and Article II of the last-mentioned Convention shall be read as if the list of crimes there-in contained had originally comprised the additional crimes numbered 23 in the first Article of the present Convention.

The present Convention shall be ratified by the High Contracting Parties in accordance with their respective constitutional methods, and shall take effect on the date of the exchange of ratifications which shall take place at Vienna as soon as possible.

In witness whereof the abovementioned Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Convention in both the English and German languages, and have hereunto affixed their seals.

Done, in duplicate, at Vienna, this 19th day of May, nineteen hundred and thirty-four.
